MAN AND HIS BUTTONS.

Illa Method of Sowing These on, and Difficulties Encountered.

Did you ever see a man in the solitude and privacy of his study attempt to sew on a botton by hums-if? It is, in all its details, one of the most interesting performances in the world. First he hunts for a button. Generally, to secure it, he role Peter to pay Park, and cuts from another gorment. This builton may be mach larger or much smaller than the size he is wearing. Next he hunts a needle. Probably he cost and bays a paper of meedles. Its always chooses the largest needles, having an impression that keres meedles, having an impression that keres meedles will sew stronger than the coarse the can find, and this he doubles. HORRIBLE TRIPLE MURDER!

Three Persons Found Dead With Their Throats Cut From Ear to Ear.

Particulars of the Dreadful Affair No Clew to the Murderers.

The startling news of a terrible triple murder reached the REPUBLICAN office at nine o'clock this forenoon. It was a brief statement to the effect that on last Friday night three men, Charles McMahan, a John Carlock, whose home was at Fairof Hazeldell, Crawford county, had been RRUTALIAY BUTCHERED at the home of McMahon, lour nales north of Latham, in the edge of Logan county, and within five miles of Mt. Pulaski. The lifeless bodies were not discovered until Sunday at about noon, when parties went to the McMahan farm to learn why everything was so quiet about the place. It was then obscovered that there was no one in the house and that everything inside was in a disordered state. There were bed-quilts fastened up to each of the windows of the house, but nowhere inside the dwelling could anyone be found. THE REVUENCION.

The out-houses were searched, and fearing the worst on account of the condition of the house, the men extended their search, and as they looked around the grounds they found the bodies of the three men lying partially hidden in the high weeds, all dead, with their THROATS CUT FROM PAR TO PAR. Each man had a cloth tied over his month, and lay apon the ground with his hands and feet tied. The bodies when found were in an advanced state of decom-News of the dreadful affair was spread, but up to the hour of going to press we have received no information that any one has been arrested or that the people terrible deed. McMahan was a man aged 15 years, and owned the farm of 80 acres on which he was cruelly killed. He had been in Mt. Palaski on Friday, and it is understond that he drew some money from the bank on that day. It is supposed that the only motive of the murder was for toldiery, but it is not yet learned how much money was obtained. Possibly parties who saw McMahan get money at the Mt. Pulaski bank, followed him home, and to accomplish their purpose killed all three of the men. The crime was undoubtedly committed on Friday night, and the murder ers had ample time between that dreadful night and Sunday noon to put hundreds of miles between them and the cence of the murder. Liberal rewards should be offered for the apprehension of fort should be made to explore and pun-
